Yipeng March Wang was made in China and embellished in America. March is 34 years old and a graduate of Emory University class of 05. He triple majored in Philosophy, Chinese, and video games. For the past 12 years, March has been working as a Chinese teacher for students around Atlanta area age k-12. Currently, he is teaching math, science, and health at Oakley Elementary School Dual Immersion program to 40 second graders. March is a true fan of confiscating candies from little children and teaching them the importance of a bi-lingual education. His goal is to one day own an Esports team and prepare his students for the rigor of life.
