Sarah graduated from the College in 2009 with a BA in Sociology and German. While at Emory, she played varsity soccer and basketball, worked at the Emory Writing Center, and participated in the German Studies summer study abroad program in Vienna. After graduation, she taught English in Austria for two years as Fulbright teaching assistant. She then returned to Emory for a MA in Film Studies and a year in St. Andrews, Scotland, as a Bobby Jones Scholar. After one year of teaching German at Emory and Agnes Scott, she moved to Shiloh High School in Gwinnett County. Currently, she teaches German 1-4 and IB and coaches varsity girls’ soccer at Shiloh.
